COURT ADMONISHES HAROLD
NOT TO GIVE CONSENT TO IN-TERNATIONAL NUPTIAL BE-TWEEN DAUGHTER AND SWISS HOSTIER.

Chicago, June 3.—The court fight against Mathilde McCormick's international marriage to Max Escher ended abruptly in less than two minutes proceeding in probate court today when Mr. Edith Rockefeller McCormick to the girl's mother withheld her petition for a restraining order to prevent Mathilde's marriage to the Swiss horseman.

Judge Henry Horner granted the motion of Mrs. McCormick's attorney that the petition be dismissed without question and added that Harold F. McCormick, divorced husband of Mrs. McCormick, would be appointed Mathilde's legal guardian without further delay. He made it plain however that he would expect the father to execute his trust "as guardian and a parent should," and that he would also expect Mr. McCormick to "take into consideration all the points in Mrs. McCormick's answer which was interpreted as a warning that Mr. McCormick should consider carefully any consent to Mathilde's marriage to Escher.

None of the principals in the abruptly ended court fight was in court. As the time approached for the hearing on the petition which Mathilde's divorced mother, Edith Rockefeller McCormick, was given leave to file asking an injunction restraining her former husband, Harold F. McCormick, from granting consent to the international marriage, Counsel for Mrs. McCormick announced the application had been withdrawn.

THIEVES BREAK INTO GARAGE AND TAKE PARTS FROM FORD

I. N. BAXTER'S AUTO STRIPPED OF ACCESSORIES LAST NIGHT
AFTER THIEVES FORCE WAY INTO BUILDING.

Thieves during the night entered the garage of Newton Baxter at the rear of the Palmer annex, and made off with the auto coils, lamps, cushions, batteries, and several other parts and a complete set of auto tools. Mr. Baxter's car, a Ford, five passenger, with an Ottawa body, was almost completely stripped by the vandals.

A nail in the tire, caused the authorities to think at first that the thieves were just a band of carpirates who drove a nail in the tire to damage the auto. Later they arrived at the conclusion that the robbers had made an effort to steal the car, and in rolling it back out of the garage, they picked up a nail, which caused the tire to explode with a noise, and frightened them away.

None of the neighbors were awakened by the robbery, and it was not until this morning that Mr. Baxter learned of the theft. He reported the robbery to the sheriff's office at once.

The garage is on the alleyway leading between Jackson and Jefferson streets, just east of Columbus street. The doors of the building were not locked.

All of the tires on the auto were new. This morning Gipson I. Finley saw an auto which he thought was carrying part of the loot taken from the Baxter garage at the time of the robbery. He reported the matter to the police and the sheriff's office, but the car had disappeared before the officers could locate it.

COUNTY JUDGE RECK ANNOUNCES 1922 BOARD OF REVIEW

E. C. VAN HOOREBEKE RE-AP-
POINTED TO OLD POSITION—
M. J. CHARLEY, DEMOCRATIC MEMBER.

Attorney E. C. Van Hoorebeke, of Marshfield, was reappointed to the board of review for a two years' term by Judge B. Harry Reck in the county court late yesterday afternoon. Mr. Van Hoorebeke was appointed to the board in 1920, and served for a two year period, his time expiring last fall.

The 1922 board will be comprised of Howard Farnsworth, chairman of the board of supervisors, M. J. Charley, of La Salle, and Mr. Van Hoorebeke. Mr. Farnsworth and Mr. Van Hoorebeke are members of the Republican party and Mr. Charley is a democrat.

The law provides that the board shall be comprised of two members of the political party polling the largest vote, and one member of the other party. The chairman of the board of supervisors automatically becomes a member, and ex-officio chairman of the board of review.

Mr. Charley was appointed a member of the board for a two year term last year, so the vacancy went to a Republican. A special meeting of board of supervisors was held last month to elect a chairman of the board, in order that the appointment could be made in accordance with the law.

Mr. Farnsworth was elected to succeed himself and chairman of the board at that meeting.

By the appointment of Mr. Van Hoorebeke as a member of the board there will be no change in the tax reviewing body over last year. The board will go into session the week after the June meeting of the board of supervisors. One of their first duties will be the appointment of a clerk.

STOLEN LIBERTY BONDS CAUSE SUIT IN CIRCUIT COURT

WOMAN WHO LOST $250 IN LEONORE BANK ROBBERY DEFENDANT IN APPEAL FROM J. P. COURT GIVING HER JUDGMENT AGAINST BANK.

The action brought by Mrs. Mary Chesling of Leonore to recover for $250 worth of Liberty bonds which were stolen from the Leonore State Bank at the time it was robbed in the spring of 1921 has been carried to the Circuit Court. Mrs. Chesling in Justice J. N. St. Clair's court in Streator on May 18 was awarded a judgment for the amount of the stolen bonds against the officers of the bank.

W. A. Moon, Mary Thiele and John O. Miller, the bank officials who were the defendants in the action, have now appealed the judgment to the Circuit Court and are preparing to fight it out there. Mrs. Chesling placed her bonds in the bank on Feb. 5, 1921. They were in the vault six weeks later when the robbery was pulled and they were stolen.

ATTORNEY IN WATER POWER CASE SUES FOR $82,500 FEES

CHARLES F. DIGGS, COUNSEL FOR
W. D. BOYCE, FILES RECORD
CLAIM IN CIRCUIT COURT--
SERVICES DISPENSED WITH,
ATTORNEY SAYS.

Attorney Charles F. Diggs of Washington, D. C., who made his home in Ottawa from the fall of 1918 until recently, was the plaintiff in a $100,000 lawsuit started in the Circuit Court late yesterday against the Marcellus Land and Water Power company. The action was brought to collect an alleged indebtedness of $82,500 for attorney's fees, which he alleges was incurred by the defendant in its litigation pending against the Northern Illinois Light and Traction company.

Mr. Diggs alleges that he was residing in Washington, D. C., on Aug. 1, 1918, and was practicing law there when he entered into a contract with W. D. Boyce to come to Ottawa and act as attorney for the Marcellus company in a suit which was then pending against the Northern Illinois Light and Traction company. He alleges that he came to Illinois and on Dec. 12, 1918, was licensed to practice law in this state.

For his services here, he alleges, he was to receive $2,000 annually in monthly payments and 8 per cent of all money recovered from the litigation pending at the time he was employed and 6 per cent of all the recovery of subsequent litigation.

He alleged that on April 27 of this year he was served with a notification that his services were no longer desired and was informed that his salary would stop with the month of April.

He alleges that the litigation for which he was retained has not been concluded, but states that he is willing to carry out his part of the contract. He claims that a contingent fee of $82,500 is due him in excess of the $10,000 annually which he has received.

The bill alleges that the defendant offered to settle with Mr. Boyce on June 2, but that the defendant refused to pay him.

The suit for which Mr. Diggs was retained has been in session for almost two years at the La Salle county court house before a special master. Some 25,000 pages of testimony have been taken. It is the outgrowth of a water power contract entered into between the Marcellus company and the traction company.

GROT TO SELL STOCK IN PRODUCTS CO.

A deal is in process of consummation whereby Theodore L. Grot, president of the Ottawa Products company, and Max Stahl, one of the principal stockholders of the organization, will dispose of their interests in the concern. Oscar Weinberg of Joliet and a Chicago man are said to be the purchasers.

John Langard, the secretary and treasurer of the company, will be said to retain his interest.

Mr. Langard and Mr. Grot, when interviewed today, admitted that the deal was pending and said it would probably be closed on Monday. They branded reports that "Buckey" McFarland of Joliet was to purchase a large share of the stock as being absolutely false. Mr. Grot, however, admitted that Mr. Weinberg was to be one of the purchasers and stated that the deal would probably be closed some time Monday.

The Ottawa Products company was recently incorporated by the owners of the old Ottawa Brewing company and supplanted the old concern. It is situated in the plant of the old brewery company. The company manufactures and distributes ice cream and ice and other food products. The company played their first ice cream on the market a few weeks ago.

The company is one of the most important of Ottawa's industries, and the sale is an important feature in Ottawa business life.
